

Remember and Celebrate Family Worship Response Elementary

Purpose: So this is something that comes directly from Scripture that we can pass on to children and their families. A thing that we can do that actually changes culture, it changes our attitude, it changes our heart posture. When we look at Scripture we see that God was very intentional about his people remembering. In fact, he established 7 annual feasts, festivals that the people of Israel were supposed to celebrate regularly. During these times they were specifically instructed to remember different things about their heritage or how God had provided for them or His goodness to them.

Supplies for Activity:

- Bible
- Paper
- Pen
- Music

Activity: Remembering God's Goodness

- Play music
- Ask your family what are something God has done for them in the past.
- Give them 5 minutes to write them down
- If they cant think of anything, have them pray that the Holy Spirit would remind them
- After everyone has written the things Down that god has done for them/and you family. Go around sharing your stories.
- Take time after everyone's has shared to pray to and worship God, thanking God for what He has done!

Family Discussion- As a family, what are some ways you all can stop and remember God's faithfulness?
